

Agreement to Abide by the IMPCB Examination Rules

1. All entries in the Application Form must be truthful, including the Name, Age, Academic qualifications (M.S., PhD, Years in training), Email (for communication in regard to examination results), Citizenship, and Government issued ID card number.
2. The academic training information stated, and the transcripts submitted must be truthful and genuine. The academic degrees must have been earned based on studies in higher education institutions accredited nationally. Academic degrees acquired totally online and/or at institutions not accredited nationally are not acceptable.
3. A candidate must have a government-issued photo identification for admission to the examination room. A passport usually meets this requirement.
4. Please use the Name Declaration form to put into record if you have used different names as shown in documents mentioned above.
5. Candidates are not allowed to bring any device that has a camera, a recorder, or a scanner to the examination room. Smart phones and any type of cell phones are not allowed. The staff will store your devices for a nominal fee. You may store your device in a luggage bag to be kept away from you during the examination.
6. No connections to the internet of any kind are allowed during the examinations.
7. Candidates are not allowed to disclose to others any of the examination questions, or to use a camera to capture the image of any examination question. If found sharing the questions with other people, the candidate will lose the privilege to be considered for certification for ten years. Certificates awarded will be nullified. The examination fees will NOT be refunded.
8. A person found to have intentionally submitted false information will face disciplinary actions, which may include nullification of the certificate and examination results.
9. A fully certified candidate will be automatically included in the IMPCB Registry open to the public, showing the Name, Citizenship, Specialty, and Gender. I know I can opt out by making a written request to the Secretary General or the CEO.

Attestation:

I, _____ (your full name) agree to abide by the IMPCB Examination Rules stated above. In addition, I have read the Managed Postponement Policy.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Please return the signed and dated Agreement Document with your application package.