September 13, 2025	11:00-14:00	July 15 – Aug 15, 2025

All exam times are given in UTC (Coordinated universal time). Please visit <https://time.is/UTC> to verify the current UTC time and calculate the conversion to your local time.

NOTE: Exams are advertised as for all specialties for the exam dates indicated. However, the exact exam session(s) will depend on the number of applicants in each subspecialty and examiner availability. Alternative or additional exam dates and times determined by mutual agreement between IMPCB and the accepted applicants may be used. Only applicants that apply or reapply for the specific Part III exam during the application period and that have completed the necessary Zoom test will be considered for exams prior to the next application period. Please contact IMPCB for details regarding the examination process. If you previously completed the Zoom test and wish to be examined for one of the sessions listed above, you MUST submit a revised application form and exam session selection form during the corresponding application period. Please ensure that you use an up-to-date version of these documents, available on the IMPCB web site.
